DEAR LEADER'S MESSAGE

Dear Members and Guests,

Autumn is here, and every year it takes me by surprise how pretty a season it is. The light, west winds, and.... waves! Holy Moly, it was 'fully sick' to see some long period swell again this week! Nice size, and such looooong walls! And crazy as it seems, off shore, day after day!! I wanted to say 'you should a been here yesterday' to Jess, but she just arrived back from the Menatwais today, so I would be wasting my breath.

Two 25 minute lunch time surfs, and one around 8 this morning in the last 3 days, which for me is a CRAZY amount of surfing! And here's the thing, I didn't injure myself!! I did tweak my knee a bit, but I think that has a lot more to do with being too acrobatic, than an age thing.

It was so good to surf with our mates too. I saw Scotty (of course, but not Dale), Manni going off, Nick the smooth goofy, Georgia gracefully sliding, Lauren with her rainbow focus, Ewan and his energy, Dad Mark having his 7th surf, Dermot running in, one of the Grom lads- keen as, Cooky recovered from his shoulder blemish, Greenie, Baz (not Monte) relaxing on his ski, George and Johnny Young, Andrew Farrow back on his fish and looking very energetic, and a bunch of other quite well behaved folk I didn't know. Which is good. As much as possible, lets all keep a good polite vibe out there..

Then there was Middo, holy mackerel, that's a treat to see him surf. Looking just as skilled as those old pics that Dave has with him on the nose in 1965- same as he does in 2023. It was really cool to talk about how he is in another category, and could pretty much take what he wants (obviously within reason) with a couple of the folks in the water. Much respect for him.

So Sunday is looking hopeful, surf and wind wise, looking forward to seeing you all there!

Hoo Roo for now.

Andy (DL)

VP'S POINTSCORE WRAP UP

The Northerly winds were up early, and with our Dear Leader away running Ice Bath workshops, his ever faithful VP made the call that we head over to Easties. We lost a couple of folks along the way, but a good call regarding the wind, as the surf was generally smooth and promising. But at the same, time the waves offered some challenging conditions at Corrimal.

Some of our dedicated members hung around to enjoy the warm summer conditions but didn't surf because of size/ conditions.

Unfortunately, a few of the newbies didn't know we had gone around the corner. Please keep an eye on our social media platforms for updates on the Pointscore. But the best way to keep up-to-date is to arrive on time.

The surfing was difficult sharing the peak, lots of free surfers encroaching and dropping in. One free surfer said because the Laybacker is "not that good a surfer anyway."

In some heats individuals were catching zero waves- it was hard for some. But then others were getting waves all the way to the beach, cover-ups and hanging out front.

Logistically, when we go to Easties the breaky BBQ doesn't happen, so a few members go a bit dizzy with low blood sugar – though Killer said it just made their surfing better.

All in all a great day at the beach.

A couple of observations for April: -

Most of the early leavers are letting the Tally Tent Team know (so we can adjust the heats), but a few are still vanishing into the ether!

Please let us know – there's no embarrassment as we can slot in social members/ new members to get a surf, as there were lots of holes in the Round 2 draw.

Make sure you are helping out with the judging – it's pretty simple - you judge 2 heats before yours.

Poor ol' Baz tallied most of the day and there were a few judges who did more than their share.

Winter Classic Logo competition

Reckon you're a good artist? Always wanted to go down in history? Well... Now's your chance.

The 2023 Winter Classic team are 'putting it out there'. We calling for this year's logo design for the official T-shirt and other marketing materials.

Get your T-shirt logo design ideas to us by the week of the 22nd of April – email the Dear Leader with your entries.

The Winner will be announced at the May point score.

Major cool surfing prize awarded, plus all the fame, the fortune and a free official T-shirt.

At the Committee Meeting, I agreed to write up a notice about the upcoming surf trip. I was riding the high of a few beers and getting out of my baby's bath and bed routine. Normally I'd regret doing that. But given the spot Donna has been researching, I'm more than happy to pretend like I'm working, and write something up.

The 2023 Laybacks surf trip will be happening at Bendalong. We will be staying at the Holiday Haven Caravan Park from the 19th-21st May. The park has a number of different accommodation options, with un-powered sites for the purists, powered campsites with ensuites for those that don't like to pee next to other people, or cabins that sleep 5-6 for the fancy ones amoung us.

There are play facilities for kids, there are pet friendly sites AND we are allowed to have open fires assuming the fires are contained within a pit/ brazier.

Donna really needs to get an indication of numbers to make a booking, so if you are interested, please let her know as soon as possible.

Speaking from personal experience, I have had some really fun surfs on the main beach, which is only a few minutes walk from the park. But you have a number of options including Washerwoman's, Flatrock, Manyana and Green Island.

Donna can't make a booking without numbers, so please let her know to avoid missing out on what will be a great weekend away!

Below is a list of strategies you could use so that you are allowed to come:

- 1. Volunteer to look after the kids and treat your partner to their favourite activities.
- 2. Fake your own death, and then resurface after 21st of May.
- 3. Don't get too drunk over the next two months so you don't insult your partner or their family.
- 4. Say your going on a child free romantic weekend away, but then take them to Bendalong Caravan Park instead. They won't be able to get angry at you cause there are too many of your friends/ witnesses around. You are, however, on your own when the trip ends.
- 5. If they like Hayden's Pies, you are only 34 minutes away.
